

What do you see?

Location: Ethiopia

When the rainy season comes, excess water needs to be safely disposed. Reinforced lateral drains bring water safely to natural waterways.

This drain is paved with stones. Stones augment the roughness of the canal and protect the soil.

The disposed water can be used to fill reservoirs and to recharge the buffer through infiltration pits.

Photo: Lakew Desta

20 - Reinforced drain

